<ul style="list-style-type: none">● Upcoming Assessments and SU Support- VP Welfare discussed the 'No Detriment' policy and that the SU has been looking for our version of the policy; many universities in the UK already have such a policy in place. You can read all about what a 'No Detriment Policy' is here, and the update here.- The College is continuing to support students and are taking into consideration what is going on at the moment. College supports are still in place, though online/phone only: Counselling Service, Health Service etc. If students have any questions about assessments etc please contact the SU.

- Lockers: VP Welfare noted that as many students left notes in their lockers it is suggested that all students promote note sharing and study sharing within classes. It will not be possible to retrieve notes/belongings in lockers before assessments.
 - The President stated that the policy procedures have been sent to Academic Council and that they are asking members to approve it at the next meeting on Tuesday April 28th. There is a sense of urgency to have it approved before upcoming assessments.
 - Keep an eye on your student email for updates from the College and get in touch with any queries.
- Online Students' Union Elections
 - TUDSU elections are going ahead, but only for full-time Sabbatical Officer roles and part-time Officers in Tallaght and Blanchardstown. College Officer and Postgraduate Officer elections will be held in the Autumn.

 - Polling will begin at 8am on Wednesday, May 6th and continue until midday on Friday, May 8th

We are asking students to post an image of themselves on Instagram with #TUDublinTogether and @TUDublin and @tudublinsu_cc.
