Dia Daoibh!

Hey everyone, I hope you're all well, it has been a busy few weeks since the last SC meeting. I'll run through some of the things that have happened recently.

SHIFT Week!

So we began SHIFT week on the 1st of November and had some engagement across our campuses. SHIFT week was led the Welfare Officer in Blanch Sinead Lane so well done Sinead on a great week. From the workshops with Aoife Murray which got a good turn out in Tallaght. Unfortunately on Tallaght campus we had to postpone our consent+ workshop due a lack of voiced interest but we will be looking to run this again throughout the year. We also had a really great and enjoyable time at the Sexy quiz and were delighted with the turnout and hope any of you that were there enjoyed it also.

Mental Health Week

Mental health week was run by the Welfare Officer in City campus Aoife Meagher. Covid-19 restrictions presented some barriers to carrying out a traditional mental health week however, Aoife had a successful week.

Social Justice Week (29th November-3rd December)

Plans for SJW have been finalised this week and we are very excited to have collaborated with the Chaplaincy service on this project. Between the chaplains on each campus and the Welfare Officers we are excited about running this week with lots of opportunities to celebrate days such as World Aids Day and Int. Day of Disabilities.

Casework

Casework tends to come in flurries as it is difficult for some students to know where to go and how to deal with some issues they might encounter. I know that this time of the year is particularly busy and stressful for students when everyone is swamped in CA's and studying for exams. The Welfare team alongside the Education team in the SU are planning a de-stress week either side of Christmas to just help students relax a little and get some tips for studying and combating exam stress. I want all students to know that even if the common areas aren't open the SU Officers' doors are always open for students. If we can't help ourselves, we can try our best to send you in the right direction.
