Key Points Since Last Meeting

Príomhphointí ón gcruinniú deireanach

Hello Council, This is just a couple of main key events and campaigns which took place since the last SC meeting.

Halloweek

Halloweek was a new addition to TUDSU this year and from the interest in students I feel it should have a permanent spot on the calendar for future years. All planned by the VP for Events and Engagement for City Campus. A variety of events spreading over the week before Halloween seen students really getting in the spooky spirit with their fellow students. Feedback on such events as the Halloween Ball, The Grange Gorman Haunted Tour and Spooky pints social in Bocos have received extremely positive feedback from students.

SHIFT Week

As you may know, SHIFT week was our most recent campaign. The VP for Welfare & Equality for City Campus has put an amazing amount of work into the planning and hosting of many events surrounding sexual health awareness including pop stands that were included on all sites, Sex Toy Bingo and many fun and informative games & competitions on campus with students.

Anti-Social Behaviour on campus

In meeting with a member of estates on city campus it was brought to the Unions attention that there is a rise of anti-social behaviour on campus inside and outside buildings, Particularly Central Quad. Seating areas have been left in a disrespectful state and in some areas has been damaged. Students are regularly vaping (across all sites) and university staff are being treated in a disrespectful manner. Darragh Power from estates mentioned that there will be more CCTV camera installed on the Grangegorman sites to combat these issues. Most of these issues are from students who stay after classes finish If issue persists the university will be looking at more restrictive measures for evening hours for students.
