Key Points Since Last Meeting

Príomhphointí ón gcruinniú deireanach

Halloweek:

Halloweek was a great success. We ran 3 events over the week. The first was the pizza and pint social hosted by boco. In total we had 140 students packed into the venue, including a number that came after student council training.

The 2nd set of events were Haunted Tours of Grangegorman. A big thanks to Adam who helped me host and a huge thank you to the 90 students that came out in the horrid rain. A number of event management students also helped out on the night, and they really added to the event! A massive thanks to them for doing so. The tickets for the event were 4 euro which is 360 going towards our rag charity!

We ended the week with our Halloween ball which was a collab with IADTSU. We sold over 800 tickets, and the event was a great success. Students really seemed to enjoy themselves and it was great to team up with another students' union on an event. 2 euro from every ticket sale went to the rag charity for that was 1600.

National Council:

I attended National Council on the 3rd and 4th of November. The event was hosted by NCISU. Along with attending NC I attended a number of working groups including EMC, Welfare, Campaigns and Dublin regional working groups.

Mini RAG/Christmas:

Our Mini RAG and Christmas Events take place from the 30th of November till the 7th of December. It will be the official Launch of our fundraising and we have a week work of events including TU Dublin Christmas day.

Raise and Give:

Our RAG week will take place from the 27th of Feb. Planning is well underway and we already have a number of venues booked and some really fun events and activities are in the works.

Grad Ball:

We ran the Grad Ball on the 5th of November. It took place in The Raddison Hotel. 120 people attended. I was happy with the number considering how late the university left it to announce when the actual graduations were. I think next year I would suggest that the team start to sell the tickets at the end of the academic year so people can plan in advance. Some work needs to be done in terms of tying the University down to dates.
