Key Points Since Last Meeting

Príomhphointí ón gcruinniú deireanach

Referendum

I have been informing students from East Quad about the upcoming referendum, spreading leaflet and talking to students in the building.

Helping local class issues

I helped resolved some local class issues that arose during the previous EQ Rep meetings, particularly timetabling and maintenance issues (which include room access, room maintenance, and technology) some of which was assigned by Saoirse Daly.

East Quad SU meeting

I chaired the EQ SU meeting on the 16th of November to check up on how the students are settling in before exam season begins. I was helped by Ian Kelly and Saoirse Daly.

By-election information session

I attended the by-election information session to give an insight to possible candidates about the roles and responsibilities of the part-time college officer.

Spill the T

I advertised this event to the students in East Quad as part of the goal to acclimatise the students into using the SU common room in Lower House. This is while also promoting SHIFT week and the referendum at the stand with Adam Clarke.

Events for East Quad

I am looking into several events to give an opportunity for EQ students in different courses to get to know each other and be more comfortable with campus. I have talked to the Purr Café which is a 5 minute walk from campus and they would happily host one of the events. I have also talked to Alice from the temple bar gallery if they could have one of their Art Criticism talks in East Quad which they agreed to.

EDI Training during orientation week

I created a proposal for the council for an EDI Training during orientation week after several meetings with Hazel Doran and EDI consultant Dr. Lucy Michael since the summer.
