Key Points Since Last Meeting

Príomhphointí ón gcruinniú deireanach

RAG WEEK:

Rag week starts next week and takes place across all campuses! Not much has changed since the last meeting so I will pop in the same update from the last council for those who missed it. One thing to note is although I am elected as a city campus vp, it is an important to me that all students have the same experience no matter what campus they are based on. With that being said every activity I booked for city campus I have also booked in Tallaght and Blanchardstown.

Our daytime activities will be focused on fun and engaging ways to raise money. Across the week on all campuses, we will have a dunk tank where you can donate to throw balls at a target and drop your elected officers into freezing cold water. We will also have other activities around sumo suits, rodeo bulls, inflatables, and a popcorn and candyfloss day. During this week we will also be hosting our TU Dublin Jersey, we will also have Rock 4 Rag in Workman's, Our RAG Ball in the Academy and A Rag quiz in the woolshed.

Along with that we also have our charity abseil that takes place at the end of April down the generator tower in Smithfield. We are still looking for some students to sign up and take part.

END OF SEMESTER 2 EVENTS:

I have a few events booked for after RAG week to take us to the end of the semester. Some of which are a 90s night and a Taylor Swift night. I also plan on running a couple of movie nights and we have a number of on campus activations booked. We also have plans in the
