Key Points Since Last Meeting

Príomhphointí ón gcruinniú deireanach

USI:

The next NC is in University Galway on the 23rd and 24th of February. We did not submit any motions to this NC but will be attending all the working groups.

USI Comhdháil/Congress dates are the 3rd – 6th of April in the Clayton Hotel, Co. Sligo. We had our motions collab day on the 21st of February which we discussed motions that we wish to bring forward from our college. We will also be submitting motions from the various working groups at the Galway NC. Don't forget, you have to put yourselves forward for Comhdháil but we decide who to bring from the applications (will be going out soon I promise), so make sure to be engaged in our own SC to have a good chance of getting picked!

The USI elections are currently open for students and SU officers. The nominations close on the 27th of February, campaigning begins shortly after, and the election results will be revealed at Comhdháil. Our next Student Council will have hustings for the upcoming candidates so make sure to attend. After the hustings we will then vote on who our delegates will vote for at Comhdháil.

Canteen Protest:

The protest is still postponed for the time being. We are currently in talks with the University in implementing microwaves each campus. Our dear President Brian will be able to update further.

Campus Developments:

The Sports Building is still due to open this month, but I still have not received confirmation on this. I will try follow up on this and hopefully have a verbal update.

Still no update on the benches :/ Gonna try again to contact the University and hopefully will have a verbal update.

SHAG Week:

From the 13th – 16th of February we had our SHAG Week. Unfortunately, I was only in for 2 days during the week, but the events seemed to have been quite successful.

I also performed in the Drag Race for our RAG Charity (thank you very much for donating xoxo), the night was a huge success and everyone loved it!

EDI Week:

From the 20th – 23rd of February, we have our Equality, Diversity, and Inclusion (EDI) Week. There is a load of events being ran over the course of the week. I hope everyone will get involved with what we have to offer!

Sensory Rooms:

I have been in contact with the University with implementing sensory rooms across each campus. There is some good plans coming from the University, who we hope to meet on the week of the 27th of February, so I will update verbally at SC.
