Key Points of work carried out since last meeting

Príomhphointí ón gcrúinniú deireanach

Halloweek:

Halloweek went really well. Our Fancy Dress Party was sold out and the craic was mighty. It took place in the Workman's Club and it was a great effort by all. It was great to be able to get some of our events crew to work on our welfare point also. We had a photographer on the night and the photos came out great.

Over the week we had common room socials with pumpkin carving, the nightmare realm trip, and haunted tours of Grangegorman. For the first time we had permission to use the old church at the bottom of the hill in Grangegorman for the haunted tour event.

Mental Health Week:

I had to step in to organise Mental Health Week due to illness. Due to it being so last minute we just organised a few simple events to be run across all campuses. I worked with the president and the welfare lead (staff member) to get this sorted. I then completed the suite of graphics and it was promoted via on campus posters and social media. I wasn't involved in the actual roll out of the week on the ground.

Shift Week:

Similarly I stepped in to help with this. We came up with a quick and simple plan and followed on from the work done by previous teams in this past and came up with a hopefully fun and engaging week that students can enjoy both on and off campus.

Christmas:

Our Christmas events will be announced in the coming weeks. We are hosting a Christmas fair in the lower house. We also have a bingo loco event and our annual Christmas day. We will be hosting a variety of fun events over the few weeks so stay tuned.

Our Christmas market takes place on December 5th. We are looking for as many students and local businesses to take part. If that's you let us know!

Fundraising:

November and shave of dye events will take place this month. We have had great engagement from students so far and many have started their fundraising efforts via our go fund me.

We have also launched the annual sleepout event which will take place on December 1

A number of our officers have launched their own individual appeals also.

A portion of the sales from the Christmas Market will also go to the charity.

We are also launching Charity Christmas Cards and there will be a 12 days of Christmas appeal

Red Bull fridge:

RB have given us a small fridge for the LH office and are stocking it for free. If this goes well we would love to roll it out to all campuses as TUDSU+ Expands
