Hey Gays! This is my officer report. Here's some points of note:

- Talks with nonprofits: Discussions are continuing between LGBTQ+ nonprofits to discuss and find common ground with the SU on certain issues and establish working relations. These discussions will be conducted by myself, VP For Welfare and Equality and the Welfare, Equality & Advice Lead. These nonprofits are noted of, but not limited to: LGBTQ+ Pride, Trans Healthcare Action, HIV Ireland, Belong To, ShoutOut, USI etc.
- Pride Week: Pride Week begun on the 29th of January across all campuses with flag drops and has concluded on the 2nd of February with the Poetry Night in Aungier St. These events couldn't have been done without the help of the welfare team and our wonderful executive committee's help.
- N-TUTOR Week: In combo with my securing of funds for Pride Week, me and Welfare, Equality and Advice Lead Abby Connolly are currently in discussion to potentially have something queer related for the upcoming N-TUTOR week. Conversations are still ongoing.
- Trans Identity Discussions: Conversations in relation to the streamlining of the name/gender change process across the campuses outside of city has begun. I wish to also give big recognition to Mr. Robert Bell for helping me understand the process in city better. It has started with discussions on the Tallaght campus about the process however both Bob O'Mhurchu, Senior Manager for Admissions at TU Dublin and Nadia O'Brien, Service Manager of Student Records Registration at TU Dublin have yet to move forward these conversations.

Hopefully this suffices for now and I wish to do more in the future! (P.S. Stream Fe304: Break by NMIXX)
