

SAM'S MANIFESTO

EXPERIENCE

- VP for Diversity and Inclusion in DCUSU.
- Ran successful multicultural, disability and rainbow week.
- Chair of DCU's neurodivergent society for two years.
- Worked with Aslam on workshops for how SU's can be neurodivergent friendly.
- Worked with the Autism Friendly University to secure DCU's new quiet space.
- Worked with Dyspraxia/DCD Ireland delivering talks around the country on Dyspraxia and mental health, including an interview on Ireland AM.
- Personal experience as a disabled and queer person.

CITIZENSHIP

- I want to continue the campaign for voter registration.
- Educate students on the workings of Irish politics, with an all Island approach.
- Educate students on the constitution and exactly what they are voting for.
- Continue the work on the Eco-action forum.
- Work with MO's on setting up bike clinics on campus.
- Educate students about minority disparities with the impact of climate change.
- Continue to listen and engage with any students and MO's with issues they feel are imperative to citizenship in the student movement.

EQUALITY

- I plan to continue the work on lobbying for better trans healthcare.
- Create a student campaign group for trans rights.
- Campus visits and informational posts on the LGBTQA+ community.
- Campaign for trans inclusive language in all spaces.
- Campus visits to educate SU's and students on how to make campus and events neurodivergent friendly.
- Campaign for awareness on different neurodivergent disabilities and neurodivergent affirming language.
- Not all disabilities are visible campaigns.
- Review and work with MO's on improving their college's University of Sanctuary scholarships.
- Continue to listen and engage with any students and MO's with issues they feel are imperative to equality in the student movement.

EVENTS

- Revamp Pink Training with more intersectionality events.
- Student forums for events such as Empower and Power of Disability.
- Use my contacts to create more awareness for Power of Disability with added focus on hidden disabilities.
- Have USI attend a wide range of pride parades and trans intersex pride.
- Sustainability Action conference.
